For State Treasurer, JAMES H. GARRARD, OF BOYLE COUNTY.

SATURDAY.....APRIL 4, 1857.

IT'Some of our contemporaries refuse to call the opposition by the names they assume—Black Republicans and Americans; and, indeed, it does sound sacrificial. When one thinks of a real Republican and negro worshiper, and a real American and Know-Nothing, he is sensible of a strange and incongruous mixture of antagonistic ideas. It is, however, inconvenient to qualify always in writing; and when these names are understood, they will not deceive any one. A modern Republican is an advocate of the equality of the negro with the white man; and an American is one whose pride it is to advocate what Americans have always abhorred.

Besides, the opposition will soon be tired of their present names; so that the desecration will not last long. They have been Federalists, National Republicans, and Whigs; now they are Republicans and Americans. Let them be called by these assumed names for the present; for they will soon assume another to avoid the odium their bad conduct will incur. The rogue may be John Smith here, to-day, and Peter Jones, elsewhere, to-morrow; for reasons that all can appreciate. One branch of the opposition once gloried in the name Know-Nothing. They had an organ called the Know-Nothing Crusader; but that name did not last six months; and you cannot now find one of the brethren that will own it. In a year or two, it will be in polite to call one of the brethren an American in promiscuous company. We believe we shall use the assumed names for the sake of brevity, as well as from courtesy; the opposition will soon be tired of it, and clamor for some other name.

They have a State Convention sitting here now in a back room; ashamed to be seen by the public. Its members look cheap and sheepish; and we understand the policy is to have candidates, not under the name of Americans, but Old-Line Whigs; thus trying to steal back to the old name they got ashamed of a few years ago; and which they deserted and betrayed. This is a decided symptom of an early change; and we should not be surprised to see them become indignant if we do not call their candidates Whigs. Indeed, we do not know that we are not almost too late in using the name American; it is, perhaps, out of date to-day. The State Council is in session, and, may be, some other name is fixed upon for the future.

China.

We are likely to be more or less involved in the affairs of China; very much to the satisfaction of England. The Ministry there have failed in getting the support of Parliament for their measures toward the Celestial Empire. They would gladly have it to say that they had the support of the United States in the matter. We have heretofore avoided all entangling alliances in the affairs of the old world, and it is highly important to avoid them now as far as possible; but our commercial interests with China are more important than that of any other country except England; and they will soon be more important than hers; we, therefore, cannot avoid interference in that quarter of the world. We have some vessels of war in that region that have taken some part in the transactions there; so that we are involved, whether we desire it or not. It is reported that Lord Napier has had a conference with Gen. Cass on this subject, and that he is desirous to have Robert J. Walker sent as Commissioner to that country. Walker's views about the affairs of China have somehow come under the notice of the British Ministry. Walker has accepted another position in our own domestic affairs more important than any China mission; satisfaction at home being far more important than the affairs in a far remote part of the world. But our interference now in China would only be attending to our own business, and we have no interest there except in common with other nations.

The Spanish War with Mexico.

There is no telling what Spanish pride may lead to. A war with Mexico seems determined upon, and great preparations are making; although it appears strange that a nation should meditate seriously so suicidal an act. Spain is without means to carry on her government at home, and must resort to a loan even for that purpose; and who will lend money to Spain? She was once formidable, and belonged to the first class of nations, but she has been declining for a century, and is now scarcely worth notice.

Lieut. John A. Thompson, of the first regiment of the United States Cavalry, who has been on recruiting service at Evansville, Ind., for some five months past, has received orders to close his office, and leave for headquarters at St. Louis.

Candidate for Mayor.

Capt. John M. Martin, long and favorably known as one of the best steamboaters on the river, and more recently one of the proprietors of the National Hotel, requests us to announce him an independent candidate for the Mayoralty at the city election to-day.

This is but short notice. Capt. Martin will make a decided race notwithstanding. There is a general wish to rid the city of party rule—Know-Nothing rule—and thus end the reign of persecution which for several years past has almost crushed out the business, enterprise, and mechanical and manufacturing interests of Louisville. We should inaugurate a new era—an era of peace and confidence among the people, and prosperity will inevitably follow in all pursuits.

Capt. Martin is not a member of the Know-Nothing party—one was, we believe, but having seen the error of his ways has left it, and is now ready to serve Louisville, if elected Mayor, clear of party trammel, and to that end is willing to make the race to-day.

He is a candidate on his own hook, but there are hundreds who will be glad to have this opportunity of supporting him.

CATLIN'S NORTH AMERICAN INDIANS.—This work embraces two volumes of over four hundred pages each. It is descriptive of the habits, customs, manners, and general character of the North American Indians as the author found them, during a trip of eight years amid their homes, in the wild west. It is doubtless a faithful portraiture of "Indian life" as the author found it. Never before has any volume been issued from the press of our country, furnishing half the details and incidents of their strange mode of life. It is, therefore, a work of rare value to all who would know "Indian life and character as it is in their forest home." Mr. Catlin has illustrated his work with numerous engravings, which show some of the strange conceptions of costume and manners adopted by the Indians. The book is not only a rich entertainment for the general reader, but instructive beyond any other publication in the history of the aborigines of North America.

There is no one scarcely that does not fall a lively interest in this people—whose sympathies are not aroused in their behalf. Here, within the pages of Mr. Catlin's book, we find the Indian as he is—whatever tribe he may be. As a school book, it would impart to the young a correct idea of those whose footsteps no longer are traceable within the haunts of civilized men, but whose "names are written on your lakes" ye cannot wash them out."

We commend it to the perusal of "the public" as highly instructive, while abounding in the strange, wild incidents of a thrilling romance. It may be obtained at the bookstore of Messrs. C. Hagan & Co., south side of Main street, adjoining the Bank of Louisville.

Correspondence of the Louisville Democrat.
Letter from New York.

NEW YORK, March 28, 1857.

Messrs. Editors: The speech of the Hon. James Guthrie, at his reception in your city, is commented upon at length in all of the Democratic papers of this city and State. The following from the Day Book is only a specimen of the expression of public sentiment here:

"Mr. GUTHRIE'S RECEPTION AT LOUISVILLE.—The speech of Mr. Guthrie deserves a hearty ovation.

"Mr. GUTHRIE, in his address, spoke of the country as being more important than that of any other country except England; and they will soon be more important than hers; we, therefore, cannot afford to interfere in that quarter of the world.

"We have some vessels of war in that region that have taken some part in the transactions there; so that we are involved, whether we desire it or not. It is reported that Lord Napier has had a conference with Gen. Cass on this subject, and that he is desirous to have Robert J. Walker sent as Commissioner to that country. Walker's views about the affairs of China have somehow come under the notice of the British Ministry. Walker has accepted another position in our own domestic affairs more important than any China mission; satisfaction at home being far more important than the affairs in a far remote part of the world. But our interference now in China would only be attending to our own business, and we have no interest there except in common with other nations.

Assuredly it has made his mark most favorable in all the North, and is regarded as a man of whom any State may well be proud.

During the present week the city has been unusually full of people, and unquestionably, more business is now progressing than at any time during the past year. Broadway is filled, Wall street overflowing, and the whole city alive with teeming human life.

PERSONAL.

—Senator Crittenden, of this State, made a noise nothing in St. Louis on Wednesday evening. The papers say the hall was nearly filled, but the reporters were unable to discover any originality of argument in his protracted address.

—Samuel Reber has been appointed Judge of Common Pleas for the county of St. Louis.

—F. G. Murphy, Esq., of Nelson county, is called upon by "many voters," through the columns of the Bardstown Gazette, to become a Democratic candidate to represent that Senatorial district in the next Legislature.

—Lieut. John A. Thompson, of the first regiment of the United States Cavalry, who has been on recruiting service at Evansville, Ind., for some five months past, has received orders to close his office, and leave for headquarters at St. Louis.

—John B. Sarpy, a native and eminent citizen of St. Louis, and for years a leading merchant, died in that city on Wednesday. He was a member of the firm of P. Chouteau, Jr., & Co.

—"Mlle Lola Montez will play an engagement at the Atheneum in Indianapolis shortly."

—Mr. Charlton Alexander has been appointed to the office of teller in the Northern Bank, at Paris, Ky., in place of Mr. Mitchell, resigned, and has accepted the appointment.

—The Cincinnati Gazette of yesterday says it was removed in that city Thursday, that Capt. J. W. Keenan, of that city, had been appointed United States Consul to the port of Belfast, Ireland. He has for some time been the United States Mail Agent for the States of Ohio and Indiana.

—D. B. Mellish, the distinguished elocutionist, gave a reading entertainment at Woodword Hall, in New Albany, last evening.

—The friends of Col. Sam. Medary, Governor of Minnesota, have tendered him a public dinner, which he has accepted.

—Mr. George Peabody, the London banker, arrived in St. Louis on Wednesday. On Thursday the Chamber of Commerce held a meeting, adopted a resolution complimentary to Mr. Peabody, and appointed a committee to wait on him and invite him to visit the Exchange.

—Information is wanted of Frederick Lustre and Hiriam Gregory, or their heirs. When last heard from, they were living in or about Daviess county, Ind. Address Moses R. Luster, Newberry, Ind.

—King, who shot Sherrill, in Meade county, underwent an examination before two magistrates, and was held to bail in $7,000, in default of which he was committed. Sherrill was not dead on the 25th ult., notwithstanding he had some of his brains blown out.

Elizabethon Intel., 2d.

—The Frankfort Commonwealth says that Woodford county has a right to name her own candidate for the Legislature. This is a very startling announcement, and we hope the editor does not make it unadvisedly. We fear, however, the editor is a little green.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—The municipal election in St. Louis takes place on Monday next, the 6th instant.

If we are indebted to W. A. Putnam,

Esq., for Cincinnati papers of yesterday.

Music and the Drama.

LOUISVILLE THEATER.—The engagement of Mlle Lola Montez, during the week just closing, has been tolerably successful. Her first appearance on Monday evening to a crowded house is due to the great curiosity of the public to see a woman so noted; smaller houses on those successive evenings were of strangers, and those frequenting the theater who were anxious to see her in some scenes.

We were unable to hear of her on Wednesday evening, but on Thursday evening, were much pleased with her Lady Teazie. There was in it a quiet grace and ease, combined with spirit, that we had not expected, and in future shall look for a style of performance much more worthy of notice than the notices of our exchanges gave prospect of. As the School for Scandal was admirably performed throughout, we select it as a good evidence of what the company can do when they try. Mrs. Bernard's Sylph was well one of the best characters given by the company. Mr. Field's Snyder was well, and the jury returned a verdict that the deceased had committed suicide by taking morphine. In his pocket-book was found the following, written on a scrap of paper:

Please write to Miss Amy Landon, South Bend, Indiana. Ask her to forgive Lewis A. Allen, March 18th. I have clothes and tools at the Central Hotel, and a good watch, which I must have. Farewell, and tell her to meet me in heaven. Any, don't kill yourself when you read this, but try to be happy, and I know you will always be good. Farewell, your love, Allen.

The deceased was a good-looking young man, about twenty-three years of age.

NOTE.

WE HAVE PURCHASED THE "PATENT PLASTIC, AND WATER-PROOF CLOTHING." Please send us samples, and we will purchase them. The price of the units, to the United States, to No. 40 Fulton street, New York, is $10.00 per unit. The price of the units, including New Albany and Jefferson county, Ind., including the cities of Indianapolis, Marion, and Clark counties, Ind., now prepared, the shortest notice, to accomplish the transfer of the atmosphere in all climates. It is a simple article, giving a remedy for the various diseases of the atmosphere, and is well calculated to effect a cure in all cases. The article will effectively purify the atmosphere in all climates, and is well calculated to effect a cure in all cases. The article will effectively purify the atmosphere in all climates, and is well calculated to effect a cure in all cases.

The house was crowded last night, and the performances passed off in fine style. Mlle Lola gained control over the audience, and kept them seated to the close—was compelled to leave the Spider Dance, and then make a speech. She will appear again to-night. See the bill.

SACRED CONCERT.—The evening of Thursday, April 16th, has been fixed upon for the grand Sacred Concert at St. Paul's Church. The excellent organ will be accompanied by other instruments. The best singers in the city have been secured, selected from the different choirs and societies. As this Concert is for the benefit of St. Andrew's Church, a new house of worship, it will give a fine opportunity for the exercise of benevolence.

The Sacred Concert of the Congregational Methodist Church is in rehearsal, and will be given on Friday evening.

The exact evening has not yet been fixed.

MOSART HALL.—Our friend Erskine is about to make such improvements in this Hall, in rearranging the stage and scenery, re-vestimenting, &c., as will render it one of the best halls in the Western country. Exhibitors wishing to secure a good room cannot do better in the city.

News Items.

Miss Davenport has been playing a most pleasant engagement in Charleston, S.C., and played Medea on the occasion of her benefit last Saturday evening.

Edwin Booth was playing at the St. Charles, New Orleans, last week—Mrs. Cherri was also at that theater. The Marsh Children are at Spalding & Rogers' Amphitheater.

Mad. Anna de La Grange, and the Opera Trouvère in Memphis on the 14th and 15th April.

The SUNDAY DEMOCRAT.

The Sunday edition of the Democrat to-morrow will be unusually interesting, as, in addition to its wonted variety, it will contain the correct result of the municipal election to-day. Single copies for sale in the counting-room during the morning.

Terrible and Fatal Affair.

We have been furnished with the particulars of one of the most terribly fatal occurrences in the history of our State—no less terrible than the murder of a young lady by her father, and the immediate destruction of the father's own life by his own hand. The affair occurred in Bullitt county, two or three miles from Shepherdsville, on Thursday last. A young man in the neighborhood has for some time been paying attention, with a view to matrimony, to a young lady named Elizabeth Buchey. For some reason, the young gentleman was objectionable to the girl's father, Mr. Julius Bushey, who broke off the alliance and forbade the young man's visits. It is said that, in compliance with her father's wish, the young lady has discarded her lover, and had entirely abandoned the idea of weddng him; but the old gentleman suspected that his daughter still indulged a lingering affection for her admirer, and has been watchful of her movements. The young lady expressed a wish, in the presence of her father, on Thursday morning, to spend the day at the residence of a neighbor, Mr. Elias Hall, to which her father objected, adding that he had no doubt it was her design to meet her old lover. The young lady protested that she had no thought of meeting him, and rebuked her father for his lack of confidence. During the conversation, Mr. Buchey became excited and exasperated, and drawing a revolver, fired at his daughter, the shot taking effect in her head. The first shot was not fatal, and the young lady turned to run, when the father fired another shot after her, which penetrated a vital part, killing her instantly. Conscious of the terrible crime which he had committed, but frantic with excitement, the old gentleman rushed to the door, making a demonstration upon his own life with the same weapon which had been used against his daughter with such fatal effect, where he was arrested by his son, who exerted himself to the utmost to stay the work of self-destruction. Throwing the son aside, the unnatural parent discharged the contents of a third barrel into his own head, and expired as he fell. We do not remember that it has ever been our duty to record a more painfully tragical affair; and the circumstance is rendered even more painful by the reflection that the unnatural and suicide father has been highly esteemed by his neighbors and all who knew him; was well to do in the world, and apparently happy. He has highly respectable connections in this city, and the heart-rending affair has cast a general gloom throughout a large circle of friends.

Murder and Attempt at Suicide.

Our city was startled yesterday with the report that a tragedy had been consummated in Brook street, between Main and Market; and relating to the locality, we found that the rumor was even too true. The crime is one of those unnatural villainies, the repetition of which, of itself, almost impresses us with the truth of the theory of the total depravity of the human heart. About four o'clock, yesterday morning, Thomas Traver, a native of Ireland, murdered his own wife by the infliction of a stab with the blade of a large penknife, in her side, and then attempted his own destruction with the same implement, doing himself but little injury however. It was known to the neighbors that the couple had not lived amicably together, and at the hour of four o'clock yesterday morning, a struggling noise was heard in the house, which led to the suspicion of foul play; but the neighbors tried the door and found it effectually barred against them. It was not known until about one o'clock, in the afternoon, that the foul deed had been perpetrated, and even then only by the confession of the murderer. The woman was about twenty-five years of age, and was also a native of Ireland. Her name was Mary Traver. The murderer was arrested, and will most probably have a preliminary examination before Judge Johnston this morning.

A DOUBLE MURDER.—The Mt. Sterling Whig gives the particulars of an atrocious murder in Estill county last week. A young man by the name of Edward Hawkins stole a horse in Estill last week, when Constable James Lane and a Mr. J. Irwin gave him pursuit, and caught him before he was out of the county. He gave himself up to the officers without resistance, and was placed on behind Mr. Lane on his horse, to be taken to the county jail. They had not proceeded far, when Hawkins, having espied a revolver in the breast pocket of the officer, thrust his hand in, drew it forth, and at the same time discharged the contents of a barrel in the head of Mr. Land, killing him instantly; then leveled the revolver at the head of Mr. Irwin, discharging another barrel, and killing him also. The audacious murderer then took to the fields and woods, and escaped, it is supposed, to Ohio.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Wade C. Fowler was found dead in his bed yesterday morning at the tavern on the corner of Second and Water streets. The deceased came there sick on Thursday evening, from the steamer W. B. Terry, upon which boat he had been employed. The coroner held an inquest upon the body, and the jury rendered a verdict of death from a congestive chill. The deceased is from Cleveland, Ohio, where he has a family living.

ELIZA ROPER AND MARY ROLAND.—The Mt. Sterling Whig gives the particulars of an atrocious murder in Estill county last week. A young man by the name of Edward Hawkins stole a horse in Estill last week, when Constable James Lane and a Mr. J. Irwin gave him pursuit, and caught him before he was out of the county. He gave himself up to the officers without resistance, and was placed on behind Mr. Lane on his horse, to be taken to the county jail. The audacious murderer then took to the fields and woods, and escaped, it is supposed, to Ohio.

THE CHARLESTOWN (Ind.) VISITOR.—says that a supposed runaway negro was taken up in the town on Sunday last, and conveyed to Jeffersonville. We had not heard before that any such occurrence had transpired.

ELECTIONS IN INDIANA.—The spring elections in Indiana occur on Monday next, the 6th of April. The officers to be elected are for the townships, and are constables, clerk, treasurer, trustee, and supervisors of the roads.

ELIZA ROPER AND MARY ROLAND.—Eliza Roper and Mary Roland, having nursed small-pox patients without becoming infected, thought they were equal to anything, and did sustain themselves until they dabbled in an article of modern whisky, on Thursday evening. The beverage fairly got them down, which they confessed to Judge Johnston yesterday morning, who put them on Cave-spring water for three months.

DEATH OF A LOUISVILLE PILOT.—We are pained to learn that our former fellow-citizen, Mr. Nathan Hurt, who was pilot on the ill-fated Forest Rose, the explosion on board of which was noticed in the Democrat of Thursday, lost his life by that accident. He leaves an estimable wife in this city, to whom he had been married but a short time.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.—A gentleman lost a small double-eagle gold watch last evening, somewhere between Mr. Kendrick's Jewelry store and Mr. Benj. Harney's residence, on the Bardstown turnpike. If the finder will leave the watch at this office, a reward of $10 will be paid for its recovery.

THE ST. LOUIS NEWS OF THURSDAY EVENING.—The St. Louis News of Thursday evening chronicles the arrival of Captain Throckmorton's new boat, the Florence, which is to run between St. Louis, Florence, Omaha City, Sioux City, and Council Bluffs.

THE EXPRESS COMPANY.—As furnished us yesterday with valuable papers from several points in advance of the mail.

WE detailed in a playful way, on Thursday morning, the particulars of a successful attempt on the part of some wags to deceive the conductors on the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad, on the 1st of April, volunteering a trifling compliment to the officers of the company. Exercising a characteristic taste for derision, the editor of the Journal sees fit, in the same connection, to sneer at the young gentlemen we attempted to command for their watchfulness and solicitude for the safety of human life. Messrs. Richardson, Penoyer, and Rafferty, the gentlemen alluded to, are young men of unexceptionable character, and very devoted to their duties, and it is difficult to imagine the motive which could actuate an editor in detracting from the well-earned reputation of deserving citizens. There must be something wrong in the editor's entire mental organization.

LAST LECTURE OF THE SEASON.—The Young Men's Christian Association announce the last lecture of the season at Mozart Hall this evening. The lecturer is the distinguished Prof. Reaser, of Danville College, and the subject is the "Jewish Temple." Mr. Reaser's learning and brilliant accomplishments, and his high character as a lecturer, will lead us to expect confidently a most delightful intellectual feast. The classical and beautiful foundation which he has chosen for his discourse, "The Temple," will test the power and discrimination of the great mind of the lecturer. To-night will assuredly be the brilliant night, as it is the last, of the lecture season, and those who go, early will get the seats.

EP. William L. Cline, whose arrest for passing counterfeit money we noticed yesterday morning, was in Police Court yesterday. He is from Indiana. In company with a female, he tendered a counterfeit $10 bill on the Bank of Georgetown, S. C., to Green Self, having also tried to pass it to the Conductor on the Louisville and Portland Railroad, in Samuel Hartman's coffee-house, and perhaps at other places, in all of which was informed it was counterfeit. He was armed, when arrested, with a shotgun and bowie-knife. Committed to prison to answer a charge of felony to suit. Don't fail to give them a call, at No. 50 Main street, between Third and Fourth. ap2 d2mos

SPRING AND SUMMER FANCY DRY GOODS.—We would respectfully invite the attention of ladies to the large and attractive stock of fancy and staple dry goods, at the store of G. B. Tabb, corner of Fourth and Market streets. At this house can be found a large and splendid assortment of every description of spring and summer goods, which, in point of style and elegance, cannot be excelled by that of any other Western house. They have a large stock of fancy Dress Silks; Silk Robes; Grenadine, Barege, and Organza Robes; Embroideries; Lace Goods; Silk and Lace Mantillas; Parasols; Catalenes; Victoria Stripes; white and colored figured (new) Oriental Lustres; Jacquots and Lame; together with a large stock of Cottons; Plaid Cottons, Osnaburgs, Linens, &c. m24 dtf Corone Fourth and Market.

ALL FOR ONE DOLLAR.—Great Indulgences at 96 Third Street.—Now is the time to get fine gold watches, jewelry, and extra fine books, pocket knives, cases, and work-boxes cheap. No small gifts. Every purchaser of $1 worth of liniment receives a free gift, worth from 50 cents to $100. Everybody is invited to call and examine the gifts, which are new and desirable. No money is risked on chance, as every person is sure to get the worth of their money besides the liniment, which is alone worth the amount paid for it. One hundred thousand bottles have been sold since the first of January, 1857, and has given universal satisfaction in all diseases for which it is recommended. Remember, four bottles of liniment and handsome post-gift for $1, at No. 96 Third street, near the post-office. d&w

THE KNOW-NOTHING STATE COUNCIL.—This small body adjourned yesterday, after nominating a candidate for State Treasurer. Citizen Thomas L. Jones, of Newport, was the unfortunate man. At the conclusion of their arduous labors, the convocation procured oranges, at Col. Marshall's expense, stationing themselves at post-office corner; and, to their own gratification and the amusement of passers-by, spent the afternoon in a grand stuck. They had as well take to oranges and such like scudents in time, for their hold upon the public teat of the Commonwealth is limited.

EP. Mr. Bissinger, the proprietor of the Rio Grand restaurant, and Ben. Trout, his keeper, were up before the Police Court yesterday morning, for assaulting Joseph Murphy. The trouble was all about "zeri glassier," and Joseph was not much assaulted either. Trout was held to bail to answer to an assault, how ever, which Mr. Schad was about to go; but Trout and Schad were thought to be too fishy a combination for the scales of justice to stand, and their friend Weyl went on the bond.

EP. A woman, who purchased a lace collar at a fancy store, in Fourth street, between Market and Jefferson, on Thursday evening, inadvertently put another collar under a shawl while the clerk was changing her money, and made way with it. A lady customer present witnessed the dodge, but did not expose the thief from considerations of delicacy.

AFRAY AT ST. LOUIS.—An affray occurred at St. Louis, on Thursday, between two steam-boats named Henry Woodruff and Joseph Nash, in which the former staved the latter in three or four different places with a pocket-knife. One of the wounds is supposed to be dangerous. Woodruff was arrested, and held to answer the charge.

EP. The T. C. Twitchell, Henry W. Smith, master, will leave the Portland wharf this afternoon, for New Orleans. This is an excellent boat, commanded by one of the best of men. We can safely guarantee a pleasant trip to all who are so fortunate as to secure passage with the captain, Smith on board the Twitchell.

DARING BURGLARY.—The Indianapolis Journal, of yesterday morning, says that on Thursday morning, between midnight and day, the elder store of J. Fishback, in Elliott's block, on Meridian street, in that place, was entered, the safe blown open with powder, and one hundred and seventy-nine dollars stolen from it. No other loss has been detected.

A DOUBLE MURDER.—The Mt. Sterling Whig gives the particulars of an atrocious murder in Estill county last week. THE RIVERS.—The river opposite the city continues to rise, and there is now twelve feet and over to Cairo. All the upper rivers are in good bearing order, and all are except the Illinois. The Arkansaw is in this morning, falling fast.

FIRST ARRIVAL FROM GALENA.—The river is now open to St. Paul, and boats belonging to that trade will soon commence making regular trips. The Greek Slave, in this morning, came direct from Galena, and is the first arrival from that point this season. When she left Galena the water was falling, but it was rising at points below.

EP. Morris Cotton was arrested yesterday for stealing some clothing from a clothier in Market street, between Third and Fourth, and the clothier was arrested subsequently for stealing $150 from Cotton.

EP. The demand for Hurley's Sarsaparilla continues increasing. This is the season to use it advantage.
